

MEN'S WORK GATHERING
APPLICATION TO PARTICIPATE

Men's Work: Restoring our roles for future generations.

A gathering for men working to end violence and build community well-being and the women and agencies that are supporting them.

Description

Acknowledging that change starts with ourselves, this three-day gathering will guide participants through a process of deepening self-understanding and rebuilding connection to others that is rooted in healing. Through this journey, we will support participants in addressing societal views on racism patriarchy, colonialism, and other systems of oppression and their connection to violence. Participants will return to their communities with knowledge and inspiration, equipped with new skills and tools to take action to end violence and build well-being in their communities.

When: June 28 5-8pm, June 29 9-5pm, June 30 9-5pm

Where: Juneau, AK

Application Due Date: Friday May 31st, 2019
